NEED MORE WARRIORS

General Miles Speaks of the Lessons of War.

REORGANIZATION OF ARMY.

It Is His Intention to Submit a Plan to Congress.

BASIS FOR RATIO OF INCREASE.

Acquisition of Territory Makes It Necessary That There Should Be More Thoroughly Trained Soldiers In the United States Army.

Washington, Sept. 10.—General Miles came to the war department at 10 a.m.

After spending a short time in his room at army headquarters he went to the office of the secretary of war.

Acting Secretary Meiklejohn was at the desk of Secretary Alger and was talking with Governor Atkinson of Georgia and Adjutant General Corbin when General Miles entered. The latter was accompanied by a member of his staff.

After the gentlemen had shook hands and the business with the governor was transacted, Mr. Melkilejohn and General Miles chatted for some time on general topics of the campaign in Porto Rico and the return trip of the commanding general. Shortly afterwards General Miles left the department.

Speaking of the future of the army, General Miles said that there were a number of matters which required careful and deliberate consideration, with respect to the army organization, and that undoubtedly steps in that direction would be taken as soon as practicable.

The matter of mustering out the volunteer general officers in correspondence with the general reduction of the army by mustering out, he said, would have to be taken up at an early date and that undoubtedly would cause a rearrangement of the department commands.

With respect to the reorganization of the army, General Miles said that the experience of this war had very clearly demonstrated that military authorities well understood before, that the establishment of a standard was necessary to the entire efficiency of the army.

He said it was his intention to recommend a plan of reorganization to congress and that he believed the necessity for it would be recognized by the public and by congress.

The acquisition of territory obviously made it necessary that there should be a larger army and the experience of the war had demonstrated the necessity of establishing a standard and having the troops thoroughly trained to the military service.

It was desirable, he said, that the army should be organized on the basis of one soldier to every certain number of inhabitants. It was recognized by military authorities even before the close of the war of the rebellion that the establishment of a standard was desirable, but from time to time the army had been reduced until it had reached a number disproportionately small to the size of the country and its population.

He thought that one soldier to every 1,000 population probably would be found to be about the right ratio for a standard and that the army, this standard being adopted, would increase according to the recognized needs of the government in an exact ratio to the increase of the population.

Spanish Prisoners Sail.

New York, Sept. 10.—Fifty Spanish prisoners captured at the naval battle on July 3, off Santiago de Cuba, arrived in Jersey City and went at once to the anchor line dock to board the City of Rome bound for home. The men had been held prisoners at Norfolk, Va. After the Spaniards had gone on board the City of Rome the vessel started on the voyage to Portsmouth, N. H., where she will embark as many as she can accommodate of those who have been held as prisoners at Camp Seavey. From Portsmouth the City of Rome will sail for Spain.

Troops Sail From Porto Rico.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The following dispatch has been posted at the war department from Ponce, Porto Rico: "Transport Atamo sailed with the following on board: Three companies, F. G and H, Second Wisconsin, five officers, 200 men; battery A, First Illinois, three officers, 70 men; company H, First District of Columbia, two officers, 59 men; battery C, Pennsylvania artillery, two officers, 166 men; unattached, six officers, 50 men; civilian employees, 30 men; total, 18 officers, 545 enlisted men. They should reach New York Sept. 15.

Seventh Illinois Home.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—The Seventh Illinois infantry, Colonel Marcus Kavanaugh's regiment, consisting of 1,250 officers and men, arrived here from Camp Meade, Middlebury, Pa. Outside of 20 men, who had cases of typhoid fever, but otherwise in a serious condition, the soldiers were pictures of health.

At Camp Meade.

Middletown, Pa., Sept. 10.—The Twenty-second Kansas left camp for Fort Leavenworth for muster out. The regiment was furnished four days' travel rations and coffee money. The Eighteenth Pennsylvania regiment expects to start Sunday morning for Pittsburgh. The general hospitals have sent nearly all their patients to hospitals throughout the state, and the attendants are having a breathing spell for the first time since they came to camp.

Will It Be Investigated?

Washington, Sept. 10.—The question of investigating the administration of the war department and the appointment of commissioners to conduct the investigation was gone over at the cabinet meeting.

Whether the president will direct the investigation depends upon his ability to find men for the commission, in whom there will be such universal approval that their verdict will be accepted in advance as a just determination of the subject.

Sagasta Ministry a Corpse.

Madrid, Sept. 10.—The government's severe measures to prevent reports of the secret sessions of the cortes are nullified by the senators and deputies of the opposition, who are eager to inform the foreign correspondents as to what goes on. Thursday's session of the chamber ended with Senor Silvela attacking the government and exclaiming: "The Sagasta ministry is a corpse, and we do not discuss corpses. We bury them."

Spain Applies the Gag Law.

Madrid, Sept. 10.—General Polavieja has handed a copy of his manifesto to the newspapermen, but the censor forbids its publication. The censor also forbids its transmission by telegraph. It is probable that the general intends to read it in the cortes, but it is certain the government will prevent him from so doing, and will insist upon a secret session.

Disposition of Iowa Troops.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Senator Allison and Representative Cousins of Iowa, accompanied by Governor Shaw of that state, called on the president relative to the Iowa troops. It was settled that the Forty-ninth and Fifty-first Iowa regiments shall remain in service and the Fiftieth and Fifty-second shall be mustered out.

Deaths at Camp Wilcox.

Montauk Point, L. I., Sept. 10.—The death list from the general hospital included the following: Henry Driscoll, company E, Ninth Massachusetts; Thomas L. Rourke, company L, Ninth Massachusetts; George Proper, company E, Third Infantry; Bernard Trio, company A, Tenth Infantry. All died of malarial fever.

Pesetas For Cuba.

Madrid, Sept. 10.—General Blanco has appealed to the government for funds, representing that the situation in Cuba is most distressing. Senor Romero Giron, minister for the colonies, has asked the treasury for 100,000,000 pesetas. In reply he received 30,000,000.

First Cargo of Food.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 10.—The barkentine Sceptre, from Lunenburg, N. S., with a cargo of fish, has arrived here. This is the first food cargo to reach this port since the blockade was raised.

Another Battleship at New York.

New York, Sept. 10.—The United States battleship Massachusetts reached this harbor, and is now at the government anchorage off Tompkinsville, Staten Island.

Shafter at Washington.

Washington, Sept. 10.—General Shafter reached Washington at 8:30 p. m. and went immediately to the Ebbitt House.

Mr. Gray Selected.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Senator George Gray, Democrat, of Delaware, was chosen as the fifth member of the peace commission.

Denver, Sept. 10.—The rights of Major William Cooke Daniels as sole heir to the estate of his father, the late William B. Daniels, the millionaire dry goods merchant, have been confirmed. Judge Riner of the United States circuit court has decided against the claim of Mrs. Lilian B. Daniels for the widow's half of the estate, overruling her contention that her divorce was invalid because it had been obtained by collusion.

TERRITORY OF HAWAII.

Such Will Be the Name of the New Possession

IN THE FAR PACIFIC OCEAN.

Commissioners Expect to Return to the Continent During the Latter Part of the Month—They Visit Pearl Harbor.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—The steamer Coptic from Yokohama via Honolulu brings the following advices from the latter city under date of September 3:

It will be the "territory of Hawaii." That is the name the annexation committee has decided to recommend to congress. Thus will be preserved in the political nomenclature of the United States the distinctive origin of this part of the United States. The history and tradition of the island and the associations that no resident here wants forgotten will go on in unbroken union with the name.

The form of the government will be modelled on that of existing territories. There will be no more further departure from this than local conditions and national political considerations makes necessary.

It is probable that in working out the details of the form of the government will not approximate so closely to that of state government as the ordinary form of government does.

But the ultimate possibility of statehood will not be barred. There will be no district of Columbia or Alaska form of government proposed.

Local self government will be given through extension of the municipal idea. The island will be divided into municipal districts having control under restrictions and limitations, of purely local affairs. Honolulu for instance will be a municipal district embracing the whole of the island of Oahu.

It is pretty clear from what has been said by members of the committee in framing a form of government for these islands, they have also been charged by the administration at Washington with forming a model which can be adapted to Porto Rico and other new possessions the war has brought the United States.

The committee is trying to so shape its work as to be able to conclude its labor September 20. The visiting members will, in that case, be able to return to mainland by the steamer of the 23d of September. This will be in plenty of time for the prompt presentation of the bill which will be drafted right after the opening of congress on the first Monday in December.

The commissioners visited Pearl Harbor on September 1. Admiral Miller, who is thoroughly informed as to Pearl Harbor from a naval point of view, pointed out the advantages which originally induced the United States to secure concessions there for a naval station.

Starting Tragedy.

Denver, Sept. 10.—W. H. Lawrence of Cleveland, O., was shot and probably mortally wounded in a room at the Oxford Hotel by a woman who is known as Florence Richardson. The woman then shot herself in the heart, dying almost instantly. Mr. Lawrence was taken to St. Luke's hospital. The doctors in attendance give no hopes of his recovery. The motive for the shooting is not known. The woman was about 24 years of age and of dissolute character. It is understood that her mother lives in Minneapolis. Mr. Lawrence is a brother of M. J. Lawrence, president of the Ohio Farmer Publishing company of Cleveland, O., and owns an interest in that paper. He is about 45 years old and has a family in Cleveland.

Water or Wine?

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Governor Tanner may be called upon to decide whether the battleship Illinois will be christened with water or champagne. Colonel Joseph Leiter declares that his sister, Miss Leiter, would engage in no controversy over the matter with the Woman's Christian Temperance Union or any other organization, but be guided in the matter by Governor Tanner.

He Must Die.

Dover, Del., Sept. 10.—The Delaware supreme court has sustained the decision of the lower court, which imposed sentence of death upon Rev. W. H. Fisher, colored, of Wilmington, charged with breaking into the house of Mrs. Maria Hunt of that city for the purpose of committing a felonious assault. Fisher has been sentenced to be hanged on Oct. 7.

Ebensburg, Wash., Sept. 14.—The Populist state convention by a vote of 260 to 232 has decided not to concede one supreme judge to the Democrats.

WORK FINISHED.

Cincinnati Encampment of the Grand Army at an End.

Cincinnati, Sept. 10.—The work of the thirty-second annual encampment of the Grand Army was concluded late in the afternoon.

There was a small number comparatively in attendance in the morning, but later the numbers were increased and the desire to complete the work and turn to other duties was so great that every one connected with the business of the encampment felt inclined to hurry and for this reason perhaps the expected discussions on the resolutions about the pension commission did not occur.

The rule in almost every instance was to adopt reports as presented and the pension report went through without objection, although it was modified later to take away any impression that might have arisen that President McKinley was under censure.

The discussions showed remarkable spirit, hurried earnestness and an unusual gift of oratory. But above all there was a disposition to take no radical or undignified action.

While the encampment was concluded in the afternoon so that the national board of administration could meet with Commander-in-Chief Sexton for routine initial work, the national convention of the three organizations of ladies continued until late at night.

They had much more fighting over the officers than the ex-soldiers. Their afternoon and evening sessions were devoted to the contest over the division of the honors and in those contests Illinois carried off almost everything.

The state of Illinois secured the commander-in-chief Thursday and the president of Woman's Relief corps. That state secured the president of the Ladies of the Grand Army; a vice-president of the Daughters of Veterans and one of the three members of its national council and also the secretary and counselor of the Woman's Relief corps.

Ladies of Grand Army.

Cincinnati, Sept. 10.—The ladies of the Grand Army were in session all day and night without stopping for refreshments in order to complete their session. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Agnes Winslow, Chicago; senior vice president, Mrs. M. P. Cakoon, Elyria, O.; junior vice president, Mrs. Pauline Willis, San Francisco; treasurer, Mrs. Etta Tobi, Logansport, Ind.; chaplain, Mrs. Margaret Stevens, Newark, N. J.; counsellor, Mrs. Flora M. Davey, Duluth; council of administration, Mrs. Annie Lincoln, Duluth; Mrs. Emma Wall, Lawrence, Kan.; Mrs. Aurelia Sherman, Keokuk, Ia.

Utah Republicans.

Salt Lake, Utah, Sept. 10.—The Republican state convention met here with Joseph Bagley of Ogden as temporary and ex-Senator Arthur Brown as permanent chairmen. Chief Justice Zane was nominated for supreme judge and Alma E. Eldridge for congress. The platform demands protection, metallism and reciprocity and says: "Independent of the action of any other nation, we favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1."

Aid Demanded.

Kingston, Jamaica, Sept. 10.—The conference of West Indian representatives at the Island of Barbadoes passed a resolution formally demanding aid from the British home government as a matter of right, as being the only available remedy for the industrial crisis, and also demanded the adoption of measures either for the exclusive of bountiful sugar from the English market or the enforcement of countervailing duties.

Exempt From Tax.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The commissioner of internal revenue has held that checks and drafts of ambassadors, ministers or other members of the foreign diplomatic corps residing in this country are exempt from tax when made in the course of the conduct of their business or in connection with expenses incidental to their residence here as diplomatic agents.

Trade With England.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The exports from the United States to the United Kingdom during the past year were in round numbers five times as much as the imports from the United Kingdom, the figures of the bureau of statistics being: Imports from the United Kingdom, $109,138,965; exports to the United Kingdom, $540,860,152.

Lynched By Negroes.

Powellton, Ga., Sept. 10.—A mob of negroes lynched John Williams, one of their own race, six miles from here, because he assaulted an 8-year-old colored girl. He was being taken by a deputy sheriff to Bainbridge for safe-keeping, when a mob of negroes took him from the officer and, leading him into the woods, shot him to death.

CLAY GETS A DIVORCE

From His More or Less Erratic Child Wife.

NO FORMAL ALIMONY GIVEN

But the Aged Kentuckian Makes Her a Present of a Farm—The Affair Went Through the Courts Without Opposition.

Richmond, Ky., Sept. 10.—General Cassius M. Clay, the Sage of Whitehall, has been granted a divorce from his girl-wife, Dora Richardson Clay, by Judge Scott of the Madison county circuit court.

The decree restores the defendant to her maiden name, Dora Richardson. The suit for divorce was filed several weeks ago, and as it was not contested by the defendant every effort was made to hurry it through the courts.

No reference was made to alimony, as it was understood by the attorneys and the court that General Clay had already made provision for his wife by the purchase of a large and productive farm near her old home. The marriage contract which existed between them was dissolved.

One of Nickum's Victims.

Logansport, Ind., Sept. 10.—A rather pathetic feature of the operations of S. B. Nickum, the perpetual-light man, was presented at police headquarters in the arrival of William Burroughs of Lancaster, Wis. He had made the trip on a bicycle, and was covered with dust and well-nigh exhausted. Several months ago he invested $15 in one of Nickum's contracts, and awaited the arrival of the sample lights. Repeated requests brought no response, and Burroughs procured a wheel and started for Logansport. He is extremely poor, and during the week required for the journey he slept at nights in friendly strawstacks.

Big Cucumber Crop.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 10.—This has been an unprecedented cucumber raising year, the late rains and warm weather being particularly favorable. The result is that from 2,000 to 3,500 bushels of cucumbers have been delivered daily for weeks, and the farmers are realizing handsomely. Nearly all of the great vats are filled. It has proven a great harvest for northern Indiana, the product realizing many hundreds of thousands of bushels.

Noted Bloodhound Sold.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Sept. 10.—W. A. Carter of Seymour has disposed of his noted bloodhounds to Coroner J. E. Jehendune of Decatur, Ill., and will not further engage in the business of running down criminals. These dogs were made famous by trailing Bud Stone, the murderer of the Wren family, at Washington. Stone was executed in the prison annex.

Despondency and Death.

Indianapolis, Sept. 10.—William H. Tucker of the firm of Tucker & Dorsey, manufacturers, committed suicide by shooting himself through the abdomen and the temple. Mr. Tucker has been despondent since the death of his wife two years ago.

SECRETARY ALGER is out in an interview saying "homesickness killed many of the soldiers." Of course their shameful and outrageous treatment in the hospitals had nothing whatever to do with it.

THE railroads are enjoying a picnic these days transporting the soldiers from one camp to another. A regiment hardly gets settled at one point before an order is received to move it to another camp. Of course the railroad people are not kicking. General Miles seems to have Secretary Alger badly rattled.

THE Vermont election this week shows many surprises that are not calculated to be especially pleasing to Republicans. The Republican vote fell off quite materially from four years ago, whereas the party managers expected it would equal, if not exceed, the vote of 1894. The Democrats not only made a gain for Governor, but elected 33 Representatives in 179 towns.

THE Republican politicians who are denouncing papers for publishing reports of the shameful treatment of soldiers in the army hospitals are respectfully referred to the following:

NEW YORK, September 8.—A dispatch from Youngstown, Ohio, to the Herald says:

Mrs. Logan, who is nursing Major John Logan, her son, said to-day regarding the affairs at Montauk Point:

"Surgeon General Sternberg is largely to blame for affairs that existed at Montauk Point for some time, on account of permitting scientific principles to supersede practical ideas. I was at Montauk Point, and saw most everything that went on. I do not think the newspaper reports of the condition of affairs were exaggerated. The whole trouble was caused by delay in the preparations to receive sick soldiers sent from Santiago. Too much cannot be said of the Red Cross Society. It was General Sternberg's stubborn resistance to the Red Cross nurses that caused a lot of disaster that might have been averted."

The politicians should now get together and denounce Mrs. Logan.

THE M. E. CONFERENCE.

Rev. Jasper Field Unanimously Acquitted of the Charge of Immorality.

Interesting Addresses at the Anniversaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Preacher's Relief Society Friday.

Friday's session of the Kentucky M. E. Conference opened with devotional services conducted by Rev. R. D. Biven. At 8:30 Bishop Ninde took the chair.

The Conference Treasurer reported delinquents.

Rev. J. C. Howes, Presiding Elder of the Louisville district, and Rev. J. S. Miller, Presiding Elder of the Middletown district, reported their districts and their character passed. The character of many of the effective Elders of the conference was also passed.

Rev. F. W. Harrop was recommended as President, Rev. C. P. Adams as Secretary and Rev. G. N. Jolly as Treasurer of the Auxiliary Missionary Society of the Kentucky Conference.

A contribution was taken to defray the expenses of the trial of Rev. Jasper Field. The committee previously appointed to try Rev. Mr. Field had completed its work, and unanimously acquitted him of the charge. A woman of Olive Hill, Carter County, had accused him of being the father of her child. Afterwards she went before the County Judge and made affidavit that she was innocent, and that she had been induced by other parties to make the accusation, still later, she made another affidavit renewing the charge. The trial committee were convinced by the proof that it was a case of attempted blackmail, and that Rev. Field was innocent.

Rev. Dr. Hord, of the Church Extension Society, Rev. Dr. Savage, of Winchester, formerly agent of the American Bible Society, Rev. Howard Cree, pastor of the Christian Church, Rev. C. W. Horn, of the Cincinnati Conference, Rev. J. D. Redd, of the Sardin M. E. Church, South, Rev. Dr. Moore, editor of the Western Christian Advocate, Dr. Wheatley, of Christ's Hospital, and Rev. G. D. French, of the American Bible Society, were introduced.

Dr. French addressed conference on behalf of the Bible Society.

Addresses were also made by Dr. Moore, Dr. Hord and Dr. Wheatley on behalf of the interests they represent.

Trinity Church, Louisville, was chosen as the place of the next annual conference.

At the anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. H. R. Blaisdell, of Covington, took part in the devotional service to-morrow. Church Sabbath school at 9:30 a. m.; Mission Sabbath school in the German Church at 2:30 p. m.; Westminster Society of Christian Endeavor at 6:15 p. m. The prayer meeting and the regular evening services of the church will be held at 7 o'clock, hereafter instead of 7:30 as heretofore.

SPARROWS KILL A POLECAT.

The Ferocious Little Birds Riddle the Animal's Hide With Their Bills.

"You have often heard of the ferocity of birds, no doubt," said William Anderson, a hardy old woodsman who lives on the lower Ohio, reports the Louisville Post, "but I doubt if you ever heard of birds attacking and killing an animal that one would imagine could whip three or four fierce curs. While hunting down in the flats near the mouth of Green river several years ago I saw a large and fierce skunk beat an ignominious retreat after trying in vain to best several English sparrows and later, when the skunk has screwed his courage up to the sticking point again, I saw those same insignificant-looking little birds tear the animal to shreds. When my attention was first attracted the sparrows were flying from one side of the thicket to the other, twittering like mad. When I went to learn the cause the skunk, badly frightened, was dodging from one side to the other of a log, trying to escape the savage attacks of the feathered tribe. The birds didn't mind me, but kept dashing their little bills into the skunk's well-punctured hide. When the skunk started across an open space to the cover of nearby driftwood his tormentors pounced upon him and riddled the poor cat's hide."

Cloves are the unopened flower buds of a small evergreen shrub resembling the bay or laurel, which is indigenous in Malacca, but is not much cultivated in tropical regions of America. The buds are gathered while still green and smoked by a wood fire, and are then dried in the sun. The four petals, stamens and other parts of the flower may be distinctly seen by anyone who has the curiosity to soak a dried clove for a little while in hot water and then examine it.

CUPID breaks his bow at the sight of a face full of pimples. Hollow cheeks, sunken eyes, and a sallow complexion will defy his best intentions. Beauty is more than skin deep. The skin is merely the surface on which is written in plain characters the condition of the body. Dr. Pfeiffer's Golden Medical Discovery is good for the complexion because it makes the whole body healthy—because it clears and purifies the blood, makes the digestion strong and clears out impurities of all kinds. By increasing the ability to assimilate nutritions food, and by the infusion of its own ingredients it enriches the blood and so makes solid, healthy flesh. It cures diseases of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels, skin and scalp, simply because all these diseases spring from the same cause—a disordered digestion and consequent impure blood.

New Dress Goods for Fall

One customer, who is a competent judge, after giving our Dress Goods stock a thorough and critical inspection, frankly remarked that after visiting many stores and examining their stocks of Dry Goods she could find nothing that in any way compared with ours. We believe this to be the opinion of not only scores but hundreds of people. You'll agree with others if you'll but give our Dress Goods department a look. At 29c. there is a great line of Serges and Novelties of regular 50-cent value. At 50c. there is roll after roll of black figured and colored Novelty goods, which is about the price the ordinary dealer pays for 'em—a saving to you of about 25 cents a yard. A THING OF BEAUTY

Is the Elegant Pipe Organ Received This Week by the Church of the Nativity—Now Ready for Use.

The new organ built for the Church of the Nativity by the firm of Henry Pilcher's Sons, Louisville, is now set up and ready for to-morrow's services.

It is indeed a thing of beauty, and as tone perfect as one may hope to find in the handiwork of man. All of the 369 pipes speak, and with their soft color scheme of cream and olive, illuminated with gold and silver leaf, form a picture of exquisite grace and proportion, toning in with the surroundings as only an artist—but he could produce.

Mr. Pilcher took the dimensions of the organ loft, chancel and church, and built the organ for the place. He may well feel proud of the success of his undertaking, and the unconditional praise heard on all sides.

Experts pronounce the mechanism perfect. The result in the action of the pedals, manuals, couplers, swell and nine speaking stops must be felt to be appreciated.

Too much praise can scarcely be given the ladies of the church who have worked so unremittingly for this end. Mrs. Hiram Chenoweth has been the moving spirit, never flagging or dispairing even when it seemed most impossible of accomplishment; turning old failures into new success, and doubts and fears into this glorious reality. Throughout she has been ably seconded by the other ladies of the church and the faithful rector.

The courtesy has been extended Mr. Madison and Miss Blatterman to preside at the organ to-morrow morning and evening, respectively.

The Compulsory Education Law.

The season has arrived to remind the people of the compulsory educational law, which was passed by the Legislature a few years ago. It provides a punishment by fine of $5 to $20 for the first offence and $10 to $20 for subsequent offences. The law requires all parents and persons having children between the ages of seven and fourteen years under their control, to send the children to school at least eight consecutive weeks in a year. School trustees are finable under the law for not prosecuting parents and guardians who violate the law.

The remains of the late Wilson Miller were buried Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The body was badly decomposed, having been in the water for two weeks. When deceased disappeared his relatives thought he had gone to Cincinnati to visit his brother and sister, and they had never become alarmed over his absence.

WHILE at Portsmouth this week Lester Bateman, a wheelman from Vanceburg, ran into a blockade of wagons, and, in attempting to dodge the danger, his wheel slipped. In falling his left ankle became wedged between the crank and frame of the wheel, an aperture of less than an inch. The foot was driven in with such force that the chilled still crank was bent and the bones of the ankle were frightfully crushed. Before he could be released it was necessary to secure the services of a machinist to take the wheel apart. The foot was so badly crushed that it may have to be amputated.

"THE PRIVATE"

Writes Interestingly of Soldiers' Life in the Camp.

He Says the Privates in the Army Haven't Any Soft Snaps By Long Odds.

[Correspondence of the BULLETIN.]

CAMP HAMILTON, September 7th, 1898.

Marvelous indeed is the precision of the military system. At 11 o'clock, at the sound of the bugle, the 300 tents of the Fourth Kentucky fell as if by one impulse, and Camp Corbin passed forever out of existence.

To-night we are encamped at division headquarters—Camp Hamilton, where all the customs and discipline of army life prevail in their strictest sense. To a civilian the scene would be both beautiful and interesting—10,000 men in the regulation uniform—scores of tents, their ghostly outlines now faintly marking the place where but a short time since myriad lights twinkled and a hundred other scenes familiar enough to a soldier but utterly different from anything in ordinary life. For many weeks the future of the regiment was the one all absorbing theme of the camp, but now that it has been definitely settled that we are to remain in the service camp life has assumed its former monotony.

We do not expect to remain here over a month when we will be sent to Knoxville and ultimately to Cuba. Some mention was made in a local paper of a vote that was taken to ascertain how many of the company wished to remain in the service. As the question was propounded, only about thirty-two voted to go home, but we can say in all candor that there are not ten privates and corporals in Company B who are not heartily tired of the whole business, and are as heartily anxious to return home. The general sentiment seems to be, and is not confined to our company or regiment, but pervades the whole division—that now since all possibility of active service has ceased, garrison duty, the only thing that remains, could be done as well or better by "the regulars."

This is certainly a reasonable view of matters when we recollect that a soldier in the field is not sheltered any better than a dumb brute or fed as well as the humblest class of laborers, loses his individuality—one might almost say his identity—and a thousand other things that make life worth living.

Before being brigaded we were enjoying (?) six hours of drill daily, but now, thanks to Gen. Sanger, this has been reduced to three hours, quite enough when coupled with other duties, a fact which we will take great pleasure in proving to our friends by a practical demonstration. Right at this point we were interrupted by an incident that will serve as an illustration of some of the experience of a soldier.

A detail of several men stopped to inquire the way to the hospital of the regiment, and on inquiring, found they were carrying a well-known Maysville boy who had been taken ill during the evening, and upon his condition becoming alarming they had decided, at this hour, about 10:30 p.m., to take him to the hospital. We awoke the surgeon in charge, and, after a considerable delay in a drizzling rain, placed him in the crowded tent which had been hastily improvised this evening for the regimental sick. There he lay with all his clothes on, having a temperature of 102°, one or two of the other patients groaning and moaning while the surgeon by the flaring light of a lone candle gave the still yawning nurse his directions. Even to us, to whom a sick man is no novelty, it was a pitiful sight, especially to hear him ask for ice water, a thing almost impossible to procure at that hour. Well enough to ask when inspired by military enthusiasm that oft repeated question, "Who wouldn't be a soldier?" but the answer from the present army of volunteers, were it theirs to choose, would be one grand chorus of negatives.

The division hospital now contains 627 patients to whom to-night will doubtless add many recruits from the ranks of the Fourth Kentucky, for, with the exception of a lucky few of us, the entire regiment is sleeping on a thin rubber blanket, a very poor protection from the now steady rain, especially as the tents aren't ditched.

Should any of our Maysville friends care to visit us they will find us about five miles from Lexington and one mile back from the Bryant Station pile, with a countenance keyed up to a smile for the occasion and much real joy at their appearance.

"THE PRIVATE."

CUPID IN A BOTTLE.

The Ohio River Assists a Lonely Young Woman to Find a Husband.

Miss Edna House, of Bromley, near Cincinnati, was an ambitious young woman, who on one September afternoon became tired of single blessedness and resolved to secure herself a husband.

She cast a bottle upon the waves of the Ohio, in which, before sealing, she had placed a note which read:

"The finder of this will please correspond with me at once. I am lonely because the Bromley boys are too slow."

"EDNA HOUSE."

The missive danced along until it was lost to sight, and the young damsel had almost forgotten its existence when one day a month later she received a note from John Eggleston, a farmer of North Bend, Ky., which stated that he had found the bottle and intended to comply with the note found therein. He did so; and an exchange of photographs followed.

Shortly afterward Bromley people were startled by the appearance one Sunday afternoon of a new rig in front of the House homestead, and investigation revealed the fact that Eggleston had come to make the acquaintance of Miss House. Since then frequent visits have been made, and the gossips of the town predicted a speedy union of the two young hearts.

The expectations were realized one day lately when Eggleston arrived in town dressed in his best, and soon the two were seen wending their way toward the office of Squire Anderson, where they were married.

Fifty Sisters of Charity from Washington and Baltimore have arrived at Lexington to nurse the sick soldiers.

FOREIGN INVESTORS

Have Recently Made Heavy Purchases of American Securities.

New York, Sept. 10.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says:

The volume of business is larger than it ever has been. Investors across the water have caught the cue, and their purchases of American bonds and stocks have been heavy for several weeks.

Wheat has been about 1 cent higher in price for spot, with western receipts only about as large as those of last year for the week. No doubt some farmers have learned that it is a poor business to hold back for higher prices, and yet very many are doing it, and so are making inevitable a more disastrous decline in prices after a time.

Failures for the first week of September have been in amount of Habilitie $1,111,593—manufacturing, $224,602, and trading, $703,991.

Failures for the week have been 164 in the United States, against 215 last year.
